'Dog sledding in Jaffrey... and elsewhere'

DOG SLEDDING was a big thing in Jaffrey back in the 1940s and even before. There were races in, to and through the town that drew big crowds. Among the local names you might recognize who were among the 'mushers'—Tat Duval, Oren & William Belletete, Bill Shearer. In fact dog sledding was almost the official New Hampshire winter pastime. It was far more, too, as you'll learn at the Potluck! Any guess who the New Hampshire State Dog is? You'll find out at the Potluck! We'll also show some 'Old Winter Scenes' around Jaffrey. Any dog sledding memorabilia? If so, bring it along. 🐾 🐾 🐾

News of your Society

GREETINGS TO ALL,

WE HOPE you'll come to the Society's February 9th Potluck Supper described on the other side. Enjoy some good food and drink and then be transported back in time to an earlier Jaffrey.

We traveled off on October 16th to Wilton for the Society's Annual Autumn Outing. We were welcomed by our host, the Wilton Historical Society, at its headquarters on the top floor of the Wilton Public & Gregg Free Library. What a marvelous space they have! Afterwards we visited Frye's Measure Mill and then stopped at the First Unitarian Congregational Society Church in Wilton Center where Dick Boutwell entertained us with some autumn songs on the organ. Many of us then repaired to Brady's American Grill in Peterborough for supper.

Our collections keep growing. Among the recent additions are a large assortment of early clothing and accessories associated with the Emery family (donated by Emery Prior of Hudson, Ohio) and a trunk once owned by Jaffrey's great benefactor Jule Durant filled with Town and School annual reports and numerous other items (donated by Randy Cournoyer). Several collections that have never been catalogued were done so in the past few months: hotel registers and journals from The Ark, Jaffrey water works correspondence from 1904-05 and business journals of the blacksmith Ed Coburn, 1849-1911 (likely donated by family member Pat Van Ness).

Director Vicki Arceci has started developing a database of every program and event since the Society's inception in 1958.

We welcome new members Lou Casagrande and Pauline & Philip Tremblay but are saddened to lose members John Peard Sr. and Juliette DeGrandpre and offer our condolences to their families.

We now have a separate domain for our Dean Murder files. Check out <http://www.deanmurder.org>

And a reminder. The Society's membership year coincides with the calendar year so you will find a 2017 dues envelope enclosed (if you don't find an envelope enclosed, that means you're paid up through 2017). Please help the Society by paying promptly.
